

Ronald Burgess

Ronald Burgess (1923–2002) studied and taught economics for more than fifty years. Following in the footsteps of Alfred Marshall, John Maynard Keynes, Colin Clark, and many others, he brought together different aspects of his subject with clarity and insight. These four volumes provide an introduction for the ordinary reader to his fresh and original approach to economics and the possibility of civilisation.

ISBN 978-1-9163716-4-4 Volume 4
ISBN 978-1-9163716-0-6 Set of 4

PUBLIC FINANCE

RONALD BURGESS

PUBLIC FINANCE

Studies in Economics by Ronald Burgess

Volume 4

FURTHER WORK

4

ESA